

Reno Elks Call

Volume 2026 • April • Issue 4

Dear Members of Reno Elks Lodge #597

I want to thank you all for the support, trust, and confidence you have placed in me as I take on the role of Exalted Ruler of the Reno Elks Lodge. It is an honor to stand before a group of members who care so deeply about the cardinal principles of our order: Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love, and Fidelity. The Elks have a long tradition of helping those in need, supporting our veterans, and strengthening the communities we serve. I am proud to be part of a Lodge that continues to live by those values every day.

Our Lodge thrives because of its members' dedication. Those who volunteer their time, organize events, and lend a helping hand whenever it is needed. I encourage each of you to stay involved, share your ideas, and help us grow stronger as a Lodge and as a community. Together, we can expand our charitable efforts, welcome new members, and ensure that the spirit of Elkdom remains vibrant here in Reno.

My primary focus this year is communication. Strong communication keeps an organization healthy and united. I want every member to feel informed, heard, and included in what we are doing as a Lodge. Whether it is sharing ideas, raising concerns, or simply staying up to date with our events and initiatives, open communication will help us work more effectively together and keep everyone connected.

Another goal is to build on the policies and procedures our Lodge already has in place. We have developed these systems over many years of experience and service, and they provide the structure for how we operate. Improving these policies will help us operate more effectively and efficiently. The lessons we learned show that by reviewing our processes with fresh eyes and making thoughtful adjustments, we can save time, reduce confusion, and enable our members to focus their energy on what matters most: serving our Lodge and our community.

CHARITY, JUSTICE, BROTHERLY LOVE, and FIDELITY.

Fraternally,

Antonio Ricci, Exalted Ruler, 2026-2027, Reno Elks Lodge #597

Volunteer Recruitment Faire - What's In It For You?

For New Members

The opportunity to jump right in, no waiting on the sidelines. You've joined and paid your dues, now pick a volunteer spot at the fair that fits you:

- Veterans' breakfasts (like Nevada Guard retiree meetups)
- Charity poker runs & tournaments
- Youth programs (Hoop Shoot, drug awareness)
- Easy Lodge help (setup for socials or fundraisers)
- Special events help (Uncle Dan's Dinner, New Year's Party...)
- Fund raising activities (ENF- Fidelity Club Ambassador, Charity, most any committee)

- Kitchen activities (cooking, cleaning, serving)
- And the list goes on...

Choose something simple and fun that works with your schedule. You'll feel like family from day one.

Quick benefits:

- Build instant goodwill with officers and longtime members
- Make your membership more enjoyable and connected right away
- See your time and energy support Elks values (Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love, Fidelity).
- Get that rewarding "I'm making a difference" feeling, making dues feel worth every penny

For Seasoned Elks: Why This Volunteer Fair is Worth Your Time

The biggest benefit to you personally from showing up to this volunteer recruitment fair is a quick, upgrade to your membership, making it feel more rewarding, social, and valuable without much hassle.

- Reignite your goals and commitments. No more coasting or burnout. Pick 1-2 fresh, low-pressure roles (veteran outreach, charity drives, youth events, Lodge support) that actually fit your life right now. Walk away re-energized, not exhausted.
- Rack up recognition and respect from the Exalted Ruler and the herd.
- Upgrade the Lodge you enjoy. More active members equal stronger events, better funding, upgraded facilities, and tighter brotherhood.

Bottom Line "what's in it for me" (for every Elk—new or seasoned): This fair is one of the easiest ways to boost your Elk experience: deeper friendships, renewed pride & purpose, quick recognition, exciting involvement options, and a stronger, more enjoyable Lodge that gives back through better events, community impact, and unbeatable brotherhood.

Just show up, chat at a few booths, sign up for what excites you, and leave feeling more plugged in. One or two hours can make being an Elk way more satisfying, social, and fun. Why not make your membership deliver more for you?

Community Safety Speaker Series Update

The Reno Elks Lodge Community Safety Speaker Series has quickly become one of our most anticipated and well-attended programs. We have been fortunate to welcome knowledgeable speakers who share important information about safety issues affecting our community.

Unfortunately, due to unexpected external logistics, our upcoming scheduled speaker for April 1, 2026, has been cancelled. While we are disappointed to miss this month's presentation, we appreciate the enthusiasm and strong support our members and guests have shown for this program.

The good news is that by popular demand, the Community Safety Speaker Series will return this fall with a new lineup of engaging and informative presentations. We are already planning exciting topics for September, October, and November 2026, including a highly anticipated presentation from the Reno Police Department Gang Unit, along with other speakers who will address important community safety issues and provide valuable insights.

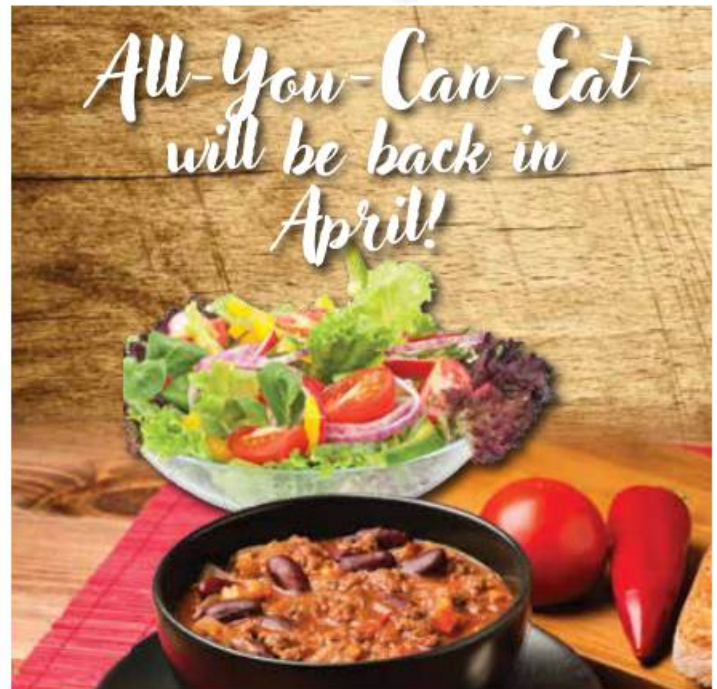

These events are designed to keep our members informed, connected, and engaged with the professionals who work every day to keep our community safe.

We appreciate your understanding regarding the cancellation and look forward to welcoming everyone back this fall for another round of meaningful conversations and informative presentations.

Stay tuned for upcoming dates and details in future newsletters and lodge announcements.

Step Up to the Line at the Reno Elks Lodge!

Looking for a little friendly competition and a lot of fun? Come check out the darts scene at the Reno Elks Lodge! Whether you're a seasoned player who knows your way around the board or someone just looking to try something new, our dart lanes are ready for you.

We're proud to offer three professional dart lanes and boards, giving players plenty of space to step up, aim true, and enjoy the game. Our setup includes both electronic scoring and traditional whiteboard scorekeeping, so you can play your way—modern and fast, or classic and competitive.

Darts at the lodge isn't just about the game—it's about the camaraderie, laughter, and friendly rivalries that make every throw memorable. Grab a drink, bring a friend, and see if you've got what it takes to hit the bullseye.

- All skill levels welcome
- Great atmosphere and great people
- Three professional lanes ready for play

So come on down to the Reno Elks Lodge, step up to the oche, and let the darts fly. You might just discover your new favorite night at the lodge!

See you at the board!

When the Lodge needs a hand, our members step up to the task and more!

Whether New or a Longtime Elk: Discover Your Perfect Fit!

Sponsors & Friends: Help Your Elks Find Their Place

Help your new recruits and longtime members feel welcome and find real purpose in our Lodge.

Introduce them to new friends and exciting ways to get involved in the community. A good Elk is an active Elk, but sometimes it's tough to know where you fit in.

Join us for the Volunteer Recruitment Faire on May 16. It's a friendly, relaxed, no-pressure event where you can learn about what we do—while enjoying camaraderie, snacks, and a chance to win prizes!

At the very least, invite your recruit to come. Even better: come with them! You might discover a new interest of your own.

While you're at it, consider inviting them to our Easter celebration and/or Mother's Day brunch too. These family-friendly events are perfect for building connections and making great memories together. Hope to see you there!

Veterans Service Committee (VSC)

By J. R. Stafford - Flag Retirement Service Coordinator

One of the many jobs and services our Lodge Brother, Tommy Brenzovich, did before his passing was to keep abreast of the steady number (average 20 per month) of old and unserviceable American flags that are dropped off for retirement. Tommy would regularly collect these flags from the box located at the base of our flagpole at the Lodge and take them to his contact at Walton's Funerals & Cremations, 875 West Second Street, in Reno. With Tommy's passing, I am honored to keep the tradition going and share my experience over the past couple of months.

I have met with Mr. Blake Howe, the Manager at Waltons, on two occasions and found a most caring partner for honoring both veterans who are cremated at Waltons and the honoring of our American flags. In short, Walton's uses our flags, which are ready for retirement, to cover the caskets of veterans during the cremation process.

The pictures above shows one of the recent veteran cremations and one of the flags from our cache of flags to be retired. I have thanked Mr. Howe on behalf of Reno Elks Lodge #597 for Walton's help with the retirement of our National Ensigns when they, too, have completed their service in our country. I also thanked him on behalf of my fellow veterans who have also served the nation, saying that it is wonderful to know that they, too, are honored with the flag as their companion on their final journey.

$1 = 1 Book

Spread the Word Nevada is the state's largest children's literacy nonprofit and has distributed more than 7 million free books to children in low-income communities since its inception in 2001. We are thrilled to help propel this important cause forward and get books into the hands and homes of our community's children in need.

SpreadtheWordNevada.org

It is time to give back to the youth in our community. Last year in April, Spread the Word Nevada set up a challenge to organizations and businesses in the area to collect children's books, from Pre-K to 5th grade reading levels, and our Reno Elks Lodge was one of the top donors in the large company category, only being beaten by the Washoe County Sheriff's Office.

We would like our Lodge to be the top donor this year. There are two ways you can donate: one is to use the QR code on the flyer to donate money, and the second is to bring books to the Lodge. There will be a barrel in the lobby for your donations the whole month of April. Please no adult books, encyclopedias, or coloring books. The preferred reading levels are Pre-K to 5th grade. Giving these books will enable children to take books home to read with their families and not have to return them, something they can cherish.

If you have any questions, please contact Christi Spiker, our Youth Coordinator, at 775-742-9833 or christispiker@gmail.com. We are sure, with your help, that we can be number one in supporting our youth with books they love to read.

Elks Care, Elks Share!! Thank you for sharing...

Reno Elks Website's New Feature.

As we continue to enhance our website, new features will be introduced on an ongoing basis to improve your experience.

This month, we are pleased to announce the launch of a new online platform that allows you to submit and pay for your Elk's Call ad electronically. This streamlined process enables you to easily track submission dates, confirm placement details, monitor costs, and submit materials directly to the Call Editor.

We are confident that this new functionality will simplify and improve the ad placement process.

Please review the steps here as they will appear on the site.

How to Place an AD in the Elks Call.

Rules: All ad placement durations, except classifieds (which are monthly), are prorated for the calendar year. Exceptions are allowed with approval from the editor.

Step 1. Determine the size of the ad you want to place: classified, business card, 1/4 page, 1/2 page, or full page.

Step 2. Calculate your placement fee. Example: business card ads are $25/month. Ad placed in May would cost 8 X $25 = $200.00.

Monthly fees: Classified – $15, Business Card Size $25 (3.75 inches wide by 2.25 inches tall), 1/4 page $5 (3.65 inches wide by 4.875 inches tall), 1/2 page ad $60 (7.5 inches wide by 4.875 inches tall), Full page $80 (7.5 inches wide by 10 inches tall).

Step 3. State your ad size and pay your appropriate fee. (Click here). Note: You can pay up to three (3) years in advance as a hedge against inflation

Step 4. You will get a notice from the office that your fees have been accepted

Step 5. Now you can submit your ad to the editor. (Click here)

Accepted formats must be in CMYK, and either a JPEG, PDF or a Canva file.

Step 6. Make sure you include your member number and Reno 597 somewhere on your ad, in 7pt or larger.

We're so fortunate to have our group leaning into making this space well-loved by all female Elksdom. Join our committee to claim your stake and have a vote in our lasting legacy. We meet on the 2nd Wednesday of each month at 4pm. You can meet in person at the Lodge or join virtually through Zoom. Email ElksWAC597@gmail.com for more information and questions! If you cannot make it on April 8th, be sure to join us on May 13th.

In celebration of International Women's Month, the women of the Women's Athletic Center took a field trip to gather and repose. WAC Members visited the Dolce Vita Wellness Spa in Rancharrah on one of the first warm Sundays of the year. Dressed in bathrobes and slippers, the ladies soaked up the sun, shared stories and much laughter, and snacked on charcuterie all day. It was a well-earned reset, especially with all the upcoming months of volunteerism and engagement.
